Consolidation Sale

After Sept. 15th, THE LABORDE CO. will cease to do business at its present location, and under its present style.

The business interests of THE LABORDE CO.—and the GELMAN interests of the former KLEBAN & GELMAN STORE are to be merged into one—consolidated.

This CONSOLIDATION SALE is inaugurated for the sole purpose of disposing of all the remaining stocks of THE LABORDE CO. Everything in the store must be sold in FIFTEEN DAYS! Even the Fixtures, Shelving, National Cash Register, Cash Desk, Roll Top Desk, Tables, Tungsten Lamps and Fixtures, Linoleum, etc.—absurdly low prices, of course.

This is clearly and emphatically the money saving event of the hour! FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR for garments of high character. The offerings in SILK, MESSALINE and LINGERIE DRESSES are particularly noteworthy. Waists by the score at cost—SILK WAISTS, NET WAISTS, etc.

Shrewd women will not wait long upon reading this GOOD NEWS. Nothing inferior. The saving is large, as well as safe in every case. Profit!

Every woman ought to provide for future needs—NOW

FINE RESIDENCE FOR FAIRFIELD

Mrs. Annie B. Jennings Builds Home 181 Feet Long, Three Stories High

One of the finest building projects executed in Fairfield in some years will be the residence for Mrs. Annie B. Jennings, which is now being erected on her property on Main street.

The house will have a frontage of 181 feet, and 46 feet deep, three stories high, of wood, the two-story porch on the front and rear being supported by large columns.

The front door opens into a large central hall, running through to the terrace in the rear. On the left are the dining room, conservatory, kitchen, pantry, laundry, etc., and on the right will be the staircase, hall, living room, drawing room, and library with fireplaces in each of these rooms.

On the second floor there will be 15 sleeping rooms, several of them with private bathrooms, and on the third floor will be several servants' rooms, with baths. The interior is to be finished throughout in white oak, with oak floors, and the rooms are to be finely decorated.

A cold storage plant will be installed and the lighting will be by gas and electricity. The plumbing has not been decided upon as yet.

With the approach of autumn the amount of building inaugurated for the year is diminishing.

During the past week ten transfers of real estate and $56,844 was loaned upon real estate mortgages.

Contracts have been awarded for the new building for Jennings Bros., which is to be erected on Fairfield avenue.

The contracts have been awarded for a residence for John W. Banks which will be built on Bunting street. It will contain eight rooms and three baths.

A house will be erected on Main street between Bavy and Thomas streets for William K. Mix. It will contain 10 rooms and cost about $5,000.

Work has been begun on the residence on Laurel avenue for Robert H. Hubbell of Westport.

BUCKINGHAM FIRST FARMER

Haymakers Hold Annual Convention, Clambake and Sheep Roast

Delegates from every loft in Connecticut were in attendance today at the thirteenth annual convention of the Connecticut State Haymakers' Association, composed only of Past Chief Haymakers of the various lofts.

The business meeting in the morning was held in the loft of Konkakapotaush Tribe, Barnum Institute. The meeting was opened with a welcome by Mayor Henry Lee, who gave the freedom of the city to the visiting delegates.

The response was made by State Chief Haymaker George J. Talbot of Wallingford. The report of the delegates from the national convention of the Haymakers, held last week in Indianapolis, was heard.

Among the delegates in attendance was City Clerk E. T. Buckingham who is a past chief of Konkakapotaush. Delegates were also present from the other Bridgeport lofts.

The election of officers resulted as follows: State Chief Haymaker, Albert M. Pohlman of South Norwalk; State Vice Chief, Haymaker, Howard T. Hoykins of New Britain; State Collector of Straws, Percy R. Welton of New Haven; State Collector of Bundles, W. J. Rockville, trustee of the lofts.

At the conclusion of the meeting, which was about 1:30 o'clock, the delegates and members of the various lofts throughout the State to the number of 225 boarded special trolley cars at the Institute for Fyres Grove where clam chowder and sandwiches were served upon their arrival. An hour later a sheep roast was served, followed by a sheep roast.

Judge Carl Foster of the city court signed a temporary injunction today against George W. Moulton engaging in the locksmithing business in this city.

The injunction was signed for by "madre Drucker and Jacob Karpiw through the law firm of Shapiro & Shoy, who presented to the court a showing of bill of sale of the locksmithing business conducted for several years in Broad street near Fairfield avenue by the defendant.

The plaintiff alleges that the vendor agreed not to engage in the locksmithing business in Bridgeport after he turned over his business to them. They allege that he is again engaging in the business and has opened an establishment across the street from police headquarters in Fairfield avenue, although the injunction was passed only a few weeks ago.

Judge Foster set the third Monday in September as the time for a hearing upon the matter. The sum of $500 and the attachment that has been made covers $750.

More promises of MAIN STREET PAVED. The permanent paving and sewer commission will probably recommend Monday evening that the work of paving Main street between the city hall and Atlantic street be performed by Director C. F. A. Blittz for the city of Bridgeport.

The railroad company is waiting a nearly every day for the route of the Erie in this section in an effort to throw the newspapermen off the trail. It is said most of the other newspapers who will be of the opinion that the Erie will be of Tuxedo to Toward Hill will go by way of Tuxedo to Toward Hill.

STOCKS DECLINE. The stock market at the opening and in the early trading was nervous and unsettled, the trading generally influenced by the many conflicting reports of the various railroad companies, the growing belief of some friction between the active interests and the management of the Union Pacific system. There was continued liquidation following in line with the heavy selling that has been in progress for two weeks which caused sharp declines in the stock market.

Two horses and two wagons, with two obstinate drivers going in opposite directions, caught in an alleyway. What is the answer? This is what happened when a driver for the M. Terry Co. while delivering a load of hay in Hallam street, and John Kuback encountered July 19. Both men in the narrow lane which runs along side the bakery at 58 Hallam street. Terry's man was on his way out and Kuback on the way in.

Neither would budge. Terry's employee brandished his whip with the result that Kuback's horse became frightened and threw Kuback on the pavement. Kuback now sues the Terry Co. for $2,000 damages. In the fall he claims to have sustained severe injuries.

FIRE SWEEPING THE RIVER FRONT IN PHILADELPHIA. (Special from United Press.) Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—One fireman is believed to be burned to death and a number seriously injured in a fire which is sweeping the Schuylkill river front in the neighborhood of 5th and Jefferson streets. The fire started in Baner's cooperage establishment. Unable to get proper pressure from the water works, the firemen have been forced to draw the water from the Schuylkill, thus handicapping them greatly.

It is feared that the wharves for a block in either direction are doomed as well as the plant of the Bergdell Brewing Company.

MANAGER OF LOCAL STORE LOSES LIFE WHILE ON VACATION. Ray McDowell, formerly manager of the Mohican store in this city, was drowned yesterday at Lake Keoka near Rochester, N. Y. Mr. McDowell had been in this city only two months, having come here from New London where he was the manager of the Mohican store in that city. He had been ill all the time he was in this city and last month to take a long vacation. He was married and is survived by a widow and one child. At present Mrs. McDowell is at the home of her husband's parents in Rochester, N. Y. While in this city Mr. and Mrs. McDowell made their home in Lafayette street.

MAILEY ESTATE OVER A MILLION

New Haven, Aug. 28.—The will of Edward Mailey has been admitted to the Probate court and shows an estate of over a million. It is a very long document of twenty-six pages, and was made June 10th, 1907. There is a codicil which was executed on April 23, 1908, of four pages.

The will of Mr. Mailey gives $1,000 for the care of his cemetery lot. It gives $14,700 in various gifts to his relatives and close friends. Miss Marion T. Leidy, his housekeeper, has a bequest of $5,000, and also an annuity of $50 per month for life.

The public bequests in the will are as follows: To the Edward Mailey Company Protective association, $1,000; to the Home for the Aged of the Little Sisters of the Poor, $1,000; to the New Haven Orphan Asylum, $1,000; to St. Francis Orphan asylum, $1,000; to the Mothers' Aid Society for the Lelia Day Nursery, $1,000.

Mr. Mailey makes several specific bequests of jewelry and heirlooms that he owned.

To his grandson, Wallace Mailey, is given the income for life from $25,000. The large balance of the property is left in four trusts for the use of his children. One of these trusts is for the education of his daughter, Mrs. Mailey, who is now a resident of the city. The children receive any of the principal while they are alive. They receive only the income. These trusts tie up the bulk of the Mailey family as long as it is possible to do so.

FOR INJURED LEG BOY ASKS $2,000. Mrs. Mary E. Tyeer, whose son William, about 13 years old, was injured on April 9, 1909, by being run over by a wagon driven by Heymen E. Kase, who conducted a second hand furniture store at 611 Water and 1221 Main streets, has brought suit through her attorney, Michael J. Flanagan, for $2,000. In the accident her son was given a broken leg, and is now permanently disabled.

WANDERER AT ST. VINCENT'S. Leo Fleck, the young mining engineer, who was taken to St. Vincent's hospital Thursday evening suffering from gastritis, is much improved today. Fleck, who is a graduate of Stanford University, has undergone a reverse in fortune since a gold mine in the Yellow Dog gold mine of California. He lost his wife and four children in the same mine. He had been working in the mine for several years and later sold his interest in the gold mine for $50,000. He invested the money in a mine which he later discovered with "baited" traps. He has been unable to find work. He has been boarding with Mrs. Napoleon Dureau at 835 Main street, and has been working for the same since Sunday. He had been without food until Thursday noon when he was given a meal by the hospital. He claims that he is a son of a German Baron, now deceased.

CONSULTATION OF PHYSICIANS FOR HARRIMAN. (Continued from First Page.) barked followed by the newspapermen. He jumped into a waiting Harriman automobile and was whisked away toward Tower Hill. A Harriman auto is waiting at nearly every station along the route of the Erie in this section in an effort to throw the newspapermen off the trail. It is said most of the other newspapers who will be of the opinion that the Erie will be of Tuxedo to Toward Hill will go by way of Tuxedo to Toward Hill.

Papers Returned In Steeplechase Suits Against B. A. Murphy. Paper were returned in the Superior court today in the $3,500 damage suit brought by George C. Murphy against B. A. Murphy. The property of Murphy over at Steeplechase Island, the carousel, circular swings and Ferris wheel, have been placed under attachment by City Sheriff Thomas Cunningham to satisfy the claim. Also in the Common Pleas court the papers are returned in another suit brought by the Steeplechase Island Company for $2,500 rent due, and the same property is attached.

DATE SET FOR HEARINGS ON LIQUOR LICENSES. The County Commissioners have set aside Thursday morning, Sept. 2, for hearings on the applications for liquor licenses of Thomas J. Carroll, 25 Middle street, and John Vicheil. The application of Carroll is objected to by the Law Enforcement League through their attorney, Jesse A. Stewart. They claim Carroll is an unsuitable person. Vicheil desires to transfer his license from 291 Howard avenue to 172 Spruce street. The hearings will be on at 10 a. m.

BREWER SUES RICE. Papers in a civil suit for $200 brought by Christian Flegenspan, the brewer, against John W. Rice, who conducts a saloon at 377 Maplewood avenue, were filed with the clerk in the Common Pleas court today.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances on Main street, Fairfield avenue and Cannon street. Bridgeport, Conn., Saturday, August 28, 1909.

Weather—Fair tonight; increasing cloudiness, local showers tomorrow.

Right Autumn fashions—and a Butterick bargain. Bright and full of interest, the Autumn edition of Butterick Fashions is ready.

It is an authoritative book exhibit of what is to be correct for wear this Autumn. It is a publication that the critical woman can depend upon. It is a book that from cover to cover contains not a single uninteresting thing.

This book sells for 25 cents. Actually it costs but 10 cents—for in each book is a coupon good for any Butterick pattern. That coupon puts 15 cents back into the purse. Thus, for 10 cents there is to be had a splendid collection of fashion news and illustration; news that is correct.

Pretty white cottons. For Autumn wear, new mercerised waists. Woven in tasteful and attractive patterns and finished with a silky gleam that adds much to their beauty. 19c yd.

Fine mercerised batiste. Light of weight and very lustrous as well as sheer. Excellent for immediate wear. 29c yd.

Nainsook of fine quality and soft finish. Much used for under garments and really ideal for them. 15c yd. Left aisle, rear.

For school. Bright pretty plaids seem to be the one thing for school wear that every girl likes. Mothers like them too. And here they are; more of them and prettier than ever.

All sorts of plaid combinations. Small and large. Bright and of softer tones. With reds or blues the predominant shade. Some with all the hues of Joseph's coat of many colors. And all of them ready for making up into just-right school dresses.

An especially-large collection at 12 1/2c yard. Center aisle, rear.

For cool nights. To keep off the chill that causes so many colds, to make the chilly nights of the late summer thoroughly comfortable—cotton blankets.

We've some that we believe are the best we ever saw at any where near the price. Nice of finish, nice of weight, nice of quality. White or gray,—50c 75c $1 and $1.50. Main floor, rear.

MAN WANTED FOR

THEFT SPENDS HIS ALL FOR FLOWERS

Walter Ritch is Arrested by Officer Peter Hall His Former Benefactor

Walter Ritch was arrested this morning by Officer Peter Hall and held for investigation. He answered the description given in letter from the police department of Pittsfield, Mass., where he is wanted for stealing some sister's tools. Ritch's home was formerly in Stamford, but about seven years ago he came to this city. At that time he was found wandering about the lower part of the city by Officer Hall. Ritch said then that he would find no work. The officer secured a job for him then at Turney's wholesale fruit store on Water street. He proved a steady workman and saved his money and about four years ago he married. He learned the sister's trade and was a good workman until recently he began to neglect his wife. Two months ago he was in the city court on the charge of non-support. Shortly after this he left his wife, who is now in New Haven, and went to Pittsfield, Mass. It was an odd fate that brought the same officer who befriended him years ago into the Chinese restaurant on State street this morning to arrest him on the charge of theft. Ritch was taken to the police station for flowers, which he sent to the funeral of Maude Hill.

ST. ROCCO'S DAY SHOOTING ENDS IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES. As a result of the shooting affray which took place at the end of the St. Rocco day celebration last night, Angelo Lapa has sued Gaetano Lappello for $500 damages. Lappello was bound over in the city court last Tuesday to the next term of the Superior court on the charge of assault with intent to kill. He was released under bonds of $200. At the time of the shooting, Lappello was holding a lota for throwing some fruit at the New Haven Italian band which was marching in the parade. During the fight, Lappello was struck by the band leader, Louis Petrucci, who will appear for the plaintiff in the October term of the Common Pleas court.

DOLLY GRAY'S LIFE A CRAZE BETWEEN TRIPS TO ASYLUM. Dolly Gray, who came to police headquarters about two weeks ago and asked to be locked up and who was later sent to the asylum for the insane at Middletown, is better known as Mame Norton in New Haven and Middletown. Her home is on the Haddam road in Middletown. She has two mother lives. Mrs. Anna Scranton, the mother has been in the state insane asylum on five different occasions. Dolly is a native of New Haven and was married to a man by the name of Norton in New Haven when she was employed in the Winchester Arms Co.

"Have You Been Yet?" We mean on one of the matinee excursions on the Steamer Park City, which takes place every week day from Bridgeport. It is just one of the pleasant trips that we know of. You lost only half a day from business and costs only a half dollar. You hear a concert by the Lyric Orchestra on the boat that is worth more than you pay for the trip. The music is an attractive feature this season and adds much to the enjoyment of the trip. When you get to New Haven there are numerous places of interest to visit. Don't put off this trip. Go while the weather is hot and be glad to get to New Haven. Only six more matinee excursions will be given as the fall time table goes into effect after Labor Day.
